

Clinical Signs of BTV in cattle

Moderate infection. Cow showing depression, conjunctivitis (red eyes), and nasal discharge.

(Photo: Dutch Ministry of Agriculture, Nature, and Food Quality)

Moderate infection. Cow showing erosion of the tissue around the nostrils and a profuse nasal discharge.

(Photo: Dutch Ministry of Agriculture, Nature, and Food Quality)

Moderate infection. Cow showing reddening of the udder with crusting and cracking of the skin on the teats.

(Photo: Dutch Ministry of Agriculture, Nature, and Food Quality).

